Subject: RE: Jackson County 1816

Hi Day,

Yes, this appears to be Jackson County, MISSISSIPPI TERRITORY, BEFORE the state was formerly established. That is why there is no state named, I'm sure. Also... Jackson County's boundaries were not as today, much larger. Another fact to mention is that the area of Jackson County & Mobile County were Spanish West Florida before 1812 when they were established.

All of those mentioned were Jackson County/Mobile County, Spanish West Florida/Mississippi Territory residents and first officials, per Four Centuries. Joshua Hadley is not mentioned.

So far, I have not found a JOSHUA HADLEY in the area of Jackson County.

The American State Papers lists

- (1) BENJAMIN HADLEY with land in Spanish West Florida, but he appears to be in the area of Pensacola
- (2) JOHN HADLEY with land in Louisiana Territory, 1812

Wilkinson County, Mississippi Territory 1816 Census listed:

- MOSES HADLEY with 1 white male over the age of 21
- 3 white males under the age of 21
- 1 white females over the age of 21
- 3 white females under the age of 21
- 10 slaves

MOSES HADLEY had a plantation/large farm in Wilkinson Co near the public road being layed out (in 1818) which went from Woodville to St. Francisville, LA.

In 1810 Franklin County, Mississippi Territory Census:

- BENJAMIN HADLEY
- 1 white male over 21
- 1 white female over 21
- 5 slaves

Jean Strickland/Pat Edwards Locator File:

- (1) JOHN L. HADLEY (1802 in Tenn)
 - He was living in Smith County, Miss in 1850.
 - John L. Hadley, age 48, a farmer, $8,200 real estate value
 - Elizabeth, age 40, born in Tenn
 - Oscar F. Hadley, age 13, born in Tenn
 - John L. Hadley, age 7, born in Alabama
 - Robert D. Hadley, age 6, born ?

Also she listes (same household?)

- Sirriha Bledsoe, age 42, born Sumner Co Tenn, died Avoyelles Par, La
- Her reference: Alabama Records by Gandrud (we have them here)

- (2) WILLIAM HADLEY, age 10, (born 1840) born in Georgia

Subject: Thank you

Thank you for the reply to my Hadley message. I appreciate your help very much. I have a terrible time keeping the land boundry's stright back then. I generally have to pull a map each time.

I don't guess you show a HADLEY-GRANTHAM or HADLEY_KING marriage do you? They are not to be found so far.

I appreciate your time and work involved to help me out.
